

Nordea Private Banking in Singapore is pleased to invite you to an after-work presentation about China. We will examine China from an investor's perspective, and will share the insights of our experts into what to expect from this financial superpower going forward, and what the likely impact will be for European companies and consumers.

Monday 7 September 2015 at 18:00
at Sheraton Grande Sukhumvit in Bangkok

Amy Yuan Zhuang, Senior Analyst at Nordea Markets in Singapore, will provide answers to the question: Is China a lost investment case?
Christina Boutrup, business journalist, former Asia correspondent, radio host and author will speak about China's growing influence in the world, and share from her deep knowledge on what is driving the Chinese, when they go shopping in Europe and buy everything from luxury handbags to companies such as Volvo.

Programme

18:00	Registration
18:30	Is China a lost investment case? Amy Y. Zhuang , Senior Analyst at Nordea Markets
	China Sweet & Sour Christina Boutrup Journalist, former Asia-correspondent and author
	Q&A session
20:00	Networking, Buffet-dinner and drinks
21:00	End of Event

We hope that you will be able to join us and look forward to seeing you on the day.

Best regards

Kim Osborg Nielsen
General Manager
Nordea Bank S.A. Singapore Branch

Registration

Please send your registration to events@nordea.sg before September 1, 2015.

Dress code: Business casual

Sign-up will be handled on a first come, first served basis.

Register @

Our speakers

Amy Yuan Zhuang

Christina Boutrup

Sheraton Grande
Sukhumvit
250 Sukhumvit Road
Bangkok 10110,
Thailand
+66 2 649 8888
website

Google map

